What's New on the Wiki?
A Transformation Glossary has been posted on the IT Transformation Wiki! If you have suggestions for terms to add to the glossary, please send a message to IT.Transformation@Illinois.gov.

DoIT Templates
As a reminder the DoIT templates, including our standard logo and fonts, continue to expand. Recently we added a Fax template per an agency suggestion. If you have other needs, please let us know. Also, as a reminder, if you are replying to a long chain of emails please reply "in-line" to prevent the files size from continuing to increase.

Featured FAQ of the Week:

Will existing servers be removed from the independent agencies and moved to a centralized location?
One of the goals is to consolidate servers that are operating in agencies into the central data center. The reason is to provide more consistent power, heating and cooling as well as take advantage of monitoring provided in the central data center location. This project will evaluate servers on a case by case basis to determine the requirements to move the server to minimize unplanned downtime.
